

§ 551.104

(1) A person appointed under appropriate authority without compensation;

(2) A trainee as defined in § 551.102; or

(3) A volunteer as defined in § 551.102.

[45 FR 85663, Dec. 30, 1980, as amended at 60 FR 67287, Dec. 29, 1995]

§ 551.104 Administrative authority.

The Office of Personnel Management is the administrator of the provisions of the Act with respect to any person employed by an agency, except for the equal pay provisions contained in section 6(d) of the Act, which are administered by the Equal Employment Opportunity Commission.

Subpart B—Exemptions

SOURCE: 51 FR 7426, Mar. 4, 1986, unless otherwise noted.

§ 551.201 Agency authority.

The employing agency shall exempt from the overtime provisions of the Act any employee who meets the exemption criteria of this subpart and such supplemental interpretations or instructions as shall be issued by the Office of Personnel Management.

§ 551.202 General principles governing exemptions.

In all exemption determinations, the agency shall observe the principles that—

(a) Exemption criteria shall be narrowly construed to apply only to those employees who are clearly within the terms and spirit of the exemption.

(b) The burden of proof rests with the agency that asserts the exemption.

(c) All employees who clearly meet the criteria for exemption must be exempted.

§ 551.203 Exemption of General Schedule employees.

(a) Any employee properly classified at GS-4 or below (or the equivalent level in other white collar pay systems) shall be nonexempt;

(b) Any employee properly classified at GS-5 through GS-10 (or the equivalent level in other white collar pay systems) shall be exempt only if the employee is an executive, administrative, or professional employee as defined in

5 CFR Ch. I (1–1–97 Edition)

§§ 551.204, 551.205, and 551.206 of this subpart.

[51 FR 7426, Mar. 4, 1986, as amended at 53 FR 1740, Jan. 22, 1988]

§ 551.204 Executive exemption criteria.

An “executive” employee is a supervisor, foreman, or manager who manages a Federal agency or any subdivision thereof (including the lowest recognized organizational unit with a continuing function) and regularly and customarily directs the work of at least three subordinate employees (excluding support employees) and meets all the following criteria:

(a) The employee’s primary duty consists of management or supervision. The primary duty requirement is met if the employee—

(1) Has authority to select or remove, and advance in pay and promote, or make any other status changes of subordinate employees, or has authority to suggest and recommend such actions with particular consideration given to these suggestions and recommendations; and

(2) Customarily and regularly exercises discretion and independent judgment in such activities as work planning and organization; work assignment, direction, review, and evaluation; and other aspects of management of subordinates, including personnel administration.

(b) In addition to the primary duty criterion that applies to all employees, foreman level supervisors in the Federal Wage System (or the equivalent in other wage systems), employees at the GS-7 through GS-9 level subject to section 207(k) of title 29, United States Code, and employees classified at the GS-5 or GS-6 level (or equivalent in other white collar pay systems) must spend 80 percent or more of the worktime in a representative workweek on supervisory and closely related work.

[53 FR 1332, Jan. 19, 1988, and 53 FR 1740, Jan. 22, 1988]

§ 551.205 Administrative exemption criteria.

An administrative employee is an advisor, assistance, or representative of management, or a specialist in a management or general business function or supporting service who meets all of the following criteria:

(a) The employee's primary duty consists of work that—

(1) Significantly affects the formulation or execution of management policies or programs; or

(2) Involves general management or business functions or supporting services of substantial importance to the organization serviced; or

(3) Involves substantial participation in the executive or administrative functions of a management official.

(b) The employee performs office or other predominantly nonmanual work which is—

(1) Intellectual and varied in nature; or

(2) Of a specialized or technical nature that requires considerable special training, experience, and knowledge.

(c) The employee must frequently exercise discretion and independent judgment, under only general supervision, in performing the normal day-to-day work.

(d) In addition to the primary duty criterion that applies to all employees, General Schedule employees classified at GS-5 or GS-6 (or the equivalent in other white collar systems) must spend 80 percent or more of the worktime in a representative workweek on administrative functions and work that is an essential part of those functions.

§ 551.206 Professional exemption criteria.

A professional employee is an employee who meets all of the following criteria, or any teacher who is engaged in the imparting of knowledge or in the administration of an academic program in a school system or educational establishment.

(a) The employee's primary duty consists of—

(1) Work that requires knowledge in a field of science or learning customarily and characteristically acquired through education or training that meets the requirements for a bachelor's or higher degree, with major study in or pertinent to the specialized field as distinguished from general education; or is performing work, comparable to that performed by professional employees, on the basis of specialized education or training and experience which has provided both theoretical and practical knowledge of the specialty, including knowledge of related disciplines and of new developments in the field; or

(2) Work in a recognized field of artistic endeavor that is original or creative in nature (as distinguished from work which can be produced by a person endowed with general manual or intellectual ability and training) and the result of which depends on the invention, imagination, or talent of the employee.

(b) The employee's work is predominantly intellectual and varied in nature, requiring creative, analytical, evaluative, or interpretative thought process for satisfactory performance.

(c) The employee frequently exercises discretion and independent judgment, under only general supervision, in performing the normal day-to-day work.

(d) In addition to the primary duty criterion that applies to all employees, General Schedule employees classified at GS-5 or GS-6 (or the equivalent in other systems), must spend 80 percent or more of the worktime in a representative workweek in professional functions and work that is an essential part of those functions.

§ 551.207 Foreign exemption.

(a) This section provides criteria for applying the "foreign exemption" contained in section 13(f) of the Act. An employee who is exempt under the foreign exemption is not subject to the minimum wage and overtime provisions of the Act. The exemption status of an employee to whom the foreign exemption is not applicable shall be determined under the general criteria contained in this subpart.

(b) Except as provided in § 551.208(d), an agency shall apply the foreign exemption to any employee who is permanently stationed in an "exempt area" as defined in § 551.102.

(c) An agency shall also apply the foreign exemption on a workweek basis to an employee on temporary duty who is not permanently stationed in an exempt area, but who performs all hours
